SHIPPING INFO

We do not want anyone paying extra shipping charges than what is necessary, so we will calculate your order specifically to insure its proper weight, zone, dimensions, etc. We will then ship the best way for your package ensuring the most cost effective rate. After receipt of your order form, we will weigh your order, notify you of your cost, and total due, you will mail your check or money order to the above address. Your items will ship immediately on receipt of a money order as long as there are no backorders involved. For checks, your order will ship when check clears.

Email your questions, concerns, or feedback to us.
